Any gripes, kudos, suggestions? Call 378-9136 to sound off.

I knew Mr. Dacuyan when I went to Monroe school and I think its terrible about that (form) someone made up about him. I'll bet if one of us stu- that we would be suspended for a year.

Monroe Alumni

The trouble with racial prejudice is that too many people think its funny. Even TV shows like Archie Bunker do more to hurt than help the problem. I hope whoever was responsible for that (Ducuyan form) is subject to strict censure.

Isn't Funny

Just read about the suit filed in the Campbell (elementary) school district and want to, say that the story is only the tip of an iceberg. Enough said.

I think its terrible that the PRESS chose to feature a picture of a witch on the cover recently. I'm a Christian and I find the whole area of witchcraft repugnant. Certainly the library can find better things to have programs about.

A Critic

Editor's note: We received several calls last week, as did the Campbell library, objecting to the appearance of the White Witch in the Community Room. Most objections centered around the caller's strong objections, and or fear, of witchcraft. The meeting at the library was very well attended (about 70 people) and the talk was interesting. The only detractors, who spoke up after the meeting was over, was a lay minister and his wife from Sunnyvale who demanded equal time to give their religious views. At last report he hadn't signed up for time in the Community Room. The consensus from those attending the meeting was that our local witch was interesting and very unthreatening. She also didn't do any recruiting.

Had an experience I wanted to share with you. Last Sunday, the day after the loop street was opened, I happened to be out driving early in the morning and decided to give Orchard City drive . . . do they call it . . . a try. If this loop street is supposed to help wolve the traffic problems in Campbell it was certainly doing its job Sunday. The only thing I came across on my two circuits around the loop was one old "Yeller dog" sitting in the middle of the loop scratching fleas.

Dog Lover

I've been taking the PRESS because I want to read about the football team at Blackford and not one story has been in the PRESS about the team that's now number one in the league. I thought the PRESS was supposed to be covering the West Valley league? What goes?

Angry Caller

Editor's note: This was one of about seven calls we received last week, most on the same day. This week you'll find coverage of Blackford and Prospect in the sports section. But we make no claims about covering the entire league. We attempt to cover those school areas that fall within the circulation area of the PRESS. We're doing some checking with the circulation department this week and will have more news on this subject next week.

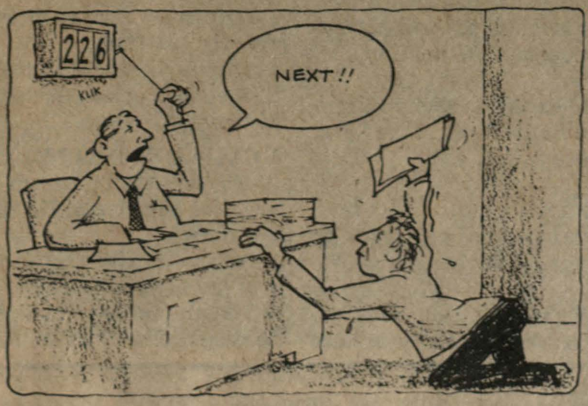
Campbell's in line for public works funding. . .and it's a long line



CAMPBELL WASN'T the only city trying to get a jump on funding through the new public works bill last week.

When Joe Elliott, city public works chief, arrived at the Department of Commerce building in Seattle around noon last Tuesday, he had plenty of company.

"They handed out numbers," Elliott says, "and Campbell was number 226."

The Seattle office began accepting applications that morning from the entire western United States and, according to Elliott, they were swamped.

"I WAS TOLD when they opened that morning it looked like opening day of the stock exchange," he laughed.

Elliott still feels Campbell was right in their special delivery approach. "Mail trucks were arriving about every half hour during the day and the mail was being dumped in the basement," he explained. The DPW director later peeked into the "California room" where mail applications had been temporarily stored. The mail stack was 8 feet wide and 6 feet deep, Elliott estimates.

Opening round in war

'A step backward' in fire service

By PAT SAFFORD

DESCRIBING SAN JOSE'S proposal to change the present auto aid agreement for fire service, "a big step backward," Campbell city councilmen last week rejected that proposal. Instead, they asked for a joint meeting between the two city councils to discuss any changes.

After a report from San Jose Fire Chief John Gerhard, the San Jose council voted last week to negotiate new mutual aid, rather than auto aid, agreements with surrounding cities and the county.

Campbell's caught in the middle of a struggle between San Jose and Central Fire District but the real issue, Campbell officials say, is with service to the community.

"WE'RE GOING back to the days when one department would stand there and watch a house burn down," City Manager Bob Stephens declared. "It's a step backward."

San Jose's proposal would include no charge service for protecting the Kirkwood Plaza area, while Campbell picks up the Westmont high school area for San Jose. All other areas, now covered by both fire departments through the auto aid agreements, would be strictly one city affairs.

However, if either side needs help, they could call on the other department and pay Gerhard's charge of $977 per man hour.

San Jose's proposal would eliminate paramedic service to many areas outside the city limits, such as the Cherry Lane annex, now receiving aid. And San Jose has made it clear they don't want paramedic service in the Westmont area to be served by Campbell.

But Fire Chief Gene Borden isn't buying that edict. "We will not respond with just an engine and leave the paramedic truck sitting at the station," Borden declared. He said San Jose finally accepted that stipulation.

BUT FOR OTHERS, not covered in that very limited exchange of service area, paramedic service is doubtful.

"If someone calls for paramedic service in those areas," Borden says, "we'd have to relay the request to San Jose and get their permission." He added that getting that permission is doubtful.

Originally San Jose came up with a plan to continue providing service to several Campbell areas, while asking that the city discontinue providing service to parts of San Jose. That plan would have set Campbell back an estimated $250,000 a year, Borden explained. That proposal was scrapped for the latest one, he added.

COUNCILMAN RUSTY Hammer wasn't taking San Jose's push for a change too seriously last week. "I think they're just testing the waters," he remarked.

But San Jose Councilman Jim Self sounded serious last week. He said if any jurisdiction refuses to accept the new agreement, San Jose could choose to end all auto aid agreements with them.

With the city's letter to Mayor Janet Gray Hayes in the mail, the next move is up to San Jose.

And, according to Councilman Dean Chamberlin, "This is just the opening round in the war."

Big trouble over a coat

TWO NEWLYWEDS from Sacramento brought their marital feuding to Campbell last week.

According to police reports, the man pulled into Denny's on W. Hamilton ave. last Wednesday night with his wife following in her car close behind. The woman, reports say, demanded the 28-year-old man return her coat which was in his car.

After words were exchanged the woman allegedly rammed her car into her husband's and then, after threatening him, made a beeline for the man. Witnesses confirmed that the man was struck on the thigh as he leaped over the hood of his car to get away. After ramming his car three more times the woman drove off.

Her husband is seeking a complaint for assault with a deadly weapon against his wife.

He explained to officers that he and his 25-year-old wife have been married for four months.

"It does not seem to be working," he said of their marriage.

THE CAMPBELL CREATURE made its debut last week at the Campbell Public Library, but the 175 spectators got a surprise instead of a battle between the city's prune-spawned creature and the Milpitas Monster (left). The two were hustled off by police before the fur could fly for violating a new regulation for creatures and monsters in Campbell. First, they were fighting in public and second, a new curfew of 1 p.m. was imposed on all such critters. For more pictures and the story see the back page of today's PRESS.

Bingo games to get rules changed

REGULATING local bingo games and a change in the regular meeting date highlights the Monday, Nov. 8 meeting of the Campbell City Council. Meetings start at 8 p.m. in the City Hall council chamber, 75 N. Central ave.

At the last meeting a report on the new county-wide bingo regulations was discussed and Campbell plans to add a few stipulations of its own.

Police Chief Don Burr is advocating restricting allowed bingo games to two days a week and limiting games to Campbell non-profit organizations.

The state-wide initiative which gave the overwhelming approval of voters was intended to be permissive but, by the time that legislation was translated, many groups may be out of their main source of revenue.

OTHERS, such as three Campbell senior groups, will have new rules imposed. While they don't accept "donations" from players, they will be required to admit the general public to games.

A public hearing is scheduled Monday on a new ordinance changing the meeting date of the council from Mondays to Tuesdays. If approved, that change would take effect Jan. 1.

ALSO UP for consideration is:

- A complaint by a resident of the Lincoln Gates Apartments over the live music at the nearby Cardiff Affair lounge.
- The continued public hearing on a possible change in the north loop street project affecting the Schuessler home at 63 N. Second st.
- A public hearing on plans to convert a single family home to a duplex at 491 Rincon ave. The Planning Commission unanimously recommended approval.

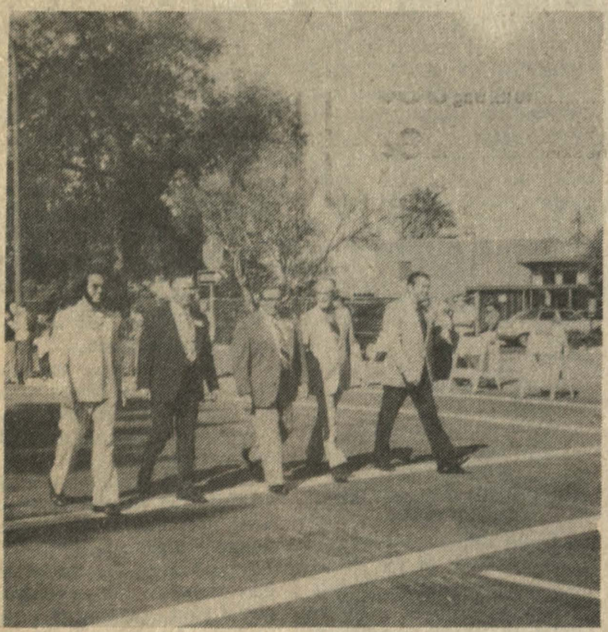
Prune cutting

Orchard City drive is open for business

OPENING CEREMONIES for the new south loop street, Orchard City drive, were held last Saturday. Keynote speaker, far right, was Nestor Barret, former city planner, who first came up with the loop street plan over 15 years ago. Mistress of ceremonies, foreground, was Jeanette Watson, chairman of the Civic Improvement Commission.

A NOVEL twist on the old ribbon cutting routine was employed last week as city councilmen, using pruning shears, clipped a genuine prune ribbon to open the new thoroughfare. For the program, Campbell, which was once the prune capital of the world, used several crates of prunes donated by the Sunsweet company.



THE FIRST walk on Orchard City drive was taken by all five members of the Campbell City Council. These same officials pounded the pavements two years ago to get the bond election passed to finance the $1.2 million project.

Vierhus named to city commission

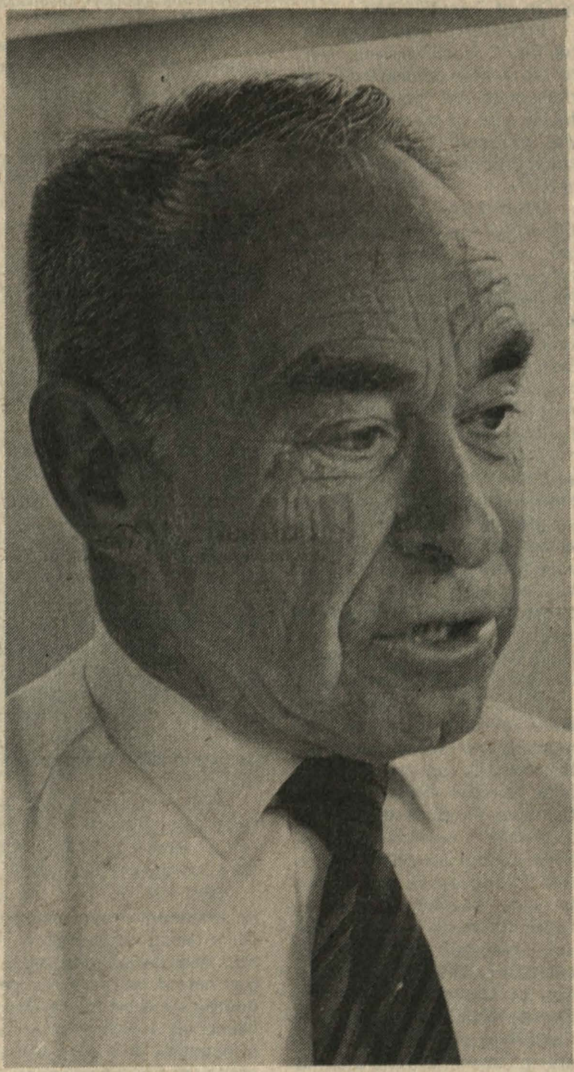
Former newspaperman George Vierhus, who was named Campbell's Citizen of the Year in 1974, got the nod from city councilmen last Tuesday night for a spot on the Planning Commission.

Vierhus, who served as editor and publisher of the PRESS for 17 years before his retirement, was named on a 4-1 vote.

He replaces Bob Stewart whose term expired in August. Stewart did not seek reappointment.

A long time Campbell resident, Vierhus and fellow contender George Kasolas, a local attorney, were neck and neck at the first go round with the City Council last month. At that time officials split 2-2, with Mayor Ralph Doetsch absent.

Since his retirement the new Commissioner has been doing free lance writing.



APPOINTED to the vacancy on the Planning Commission last week was George Vierhus. He takes his seat Thursday on the seven member commission.

Jury critical

Commissioner quits on a sour note

SHARP CRITICISM of the Campbell City Council was leveled by Civic Improvement Commissioner Dave Jury this week, as he stepped down from the post he'd held less than a year.

In a letter to the Council, Jury, who moved outside the city limits, cited "personality conflicts" between members of the Council and "ridicule" of those with differing opinions as the main reason for his dissatisfaction with city government.

Jury's statements Monday was the second by local commission appointees in recent months. When Anita Campos chose not to seek reappointment to the Civic Improvement Commission earlier, she also cited dissatisfaction with the workings of local government as the reason for her decision.

Councilman Rusty Hammer responded to the personal differences charge Monday.

"I don't believe personality differences get in the way of city business," Hammer said. While acknowledging that many decisions on controversial items are by a 3-2 vote, Hammer added, "they're not the same votes on the same issues."

This past year has been an active one for Jury, a sales representative, who first got involved in civic affairs during one of the housing and Community Development hearings.

"I said then (when appointed to the Commission) that Campbell is a nice place to live and I wanted to serve my city in some capacity. I still think it's a nice place to live."

BUT THE DISENCHANTMENT, Jury says, stems from his observation of the Council during the HCD hearings and as Chairman of the 1976 Citizens Goals Committee.

"I feel they've acted discourteously to other members of the Council," Jury said of some elected officials, "and to others who appear before the City Council."

Jury added that he wouldn't have considered speaking out if he planned to stay on the Commission. "I'd fear reprisals," he declared. By that, he later explained, he feels that any commission recommendation to come before city officials in the future might have rough sledding.

"I'm not trying to harm anyone," Jury told the PRESS Monday. "I want to bring these things into the open. They're talked about now behind closed doors. And maybe the Council should be aware a lot of people feel this way."

AS AN EXAMPLE Jury cited one statement he says Hammer made after the controversial Social Services Element to the city's General Plan went down to defeat by a 3-2 vote.

"What bothered me," Jury said, "was after the vote Councilman Hammer came out into the crowded hallway during recess and declared, 'I hope you people don't work too hard on the Goals Committee because it's going to get turned down.' "

While Jury says he feels this was probably an expression of bitterness by Hammer over the vote (Hammer was one of the two officials favoring the element), he says others felt differently. "Most people didn't know what to think," Jury says, adding that some could have taken that as a threat.

"AND THIS before the Committee even brought in their recommendations," Jury declared.

Hammer disagrees. "He's 100 per cent wrong on that," Hammer said of Jury's statement. "What I said was this should be a lesson to the Goals Committee that not everything that is given to the Goals Committee is expected (to be approved by the Council)."

The recent rumblings of dissatisfaction from city commissioners, Hammer believes, stems from a basic misunderstanding.

"Commissioners have to remember they're acting in an advisory capacity," he explained. Hammer also discounted Jury's allegations of rudeness by the Council.

"I DON'T THINK there's a single example of the Council being discourteous to individuals who have appeared before them, Hammer said. "I think it's our job to look for the community interest and in doing that we must carefully examine and question all people who have proposals to offer. We may seem to be critical at times, or we may go very deeply into certain issues but I don't think we've been discourteous."

But Jury sees it another way. "I invite anyone in the city to come down and see the City Council in action," he declared. "Not just once but several times. I think they'll be able to see how I formed my opinions."

It's dangerous playing with rattlesnakes

A 34-YEAR-OLD Campbell truck driver was still hospitalized Tuesday, but out of the intensive care unit, after suffering a rattlesnake bite last week.

According to reports, the Sobrato drive resident attempted to pick up the rattler which was loose on the floor of the garage. He was bitten on the hand.

The snake reportedly belonged to a neighbor's friend and he'd captured it in the Fresno area.

After the incident the man was treated by Campbell paramedics and rushed to Los Gatos Community Hospital. His wife reported Tuesday he's expected to be hospitalized for another week.

The snake was destroyed by county animal control.

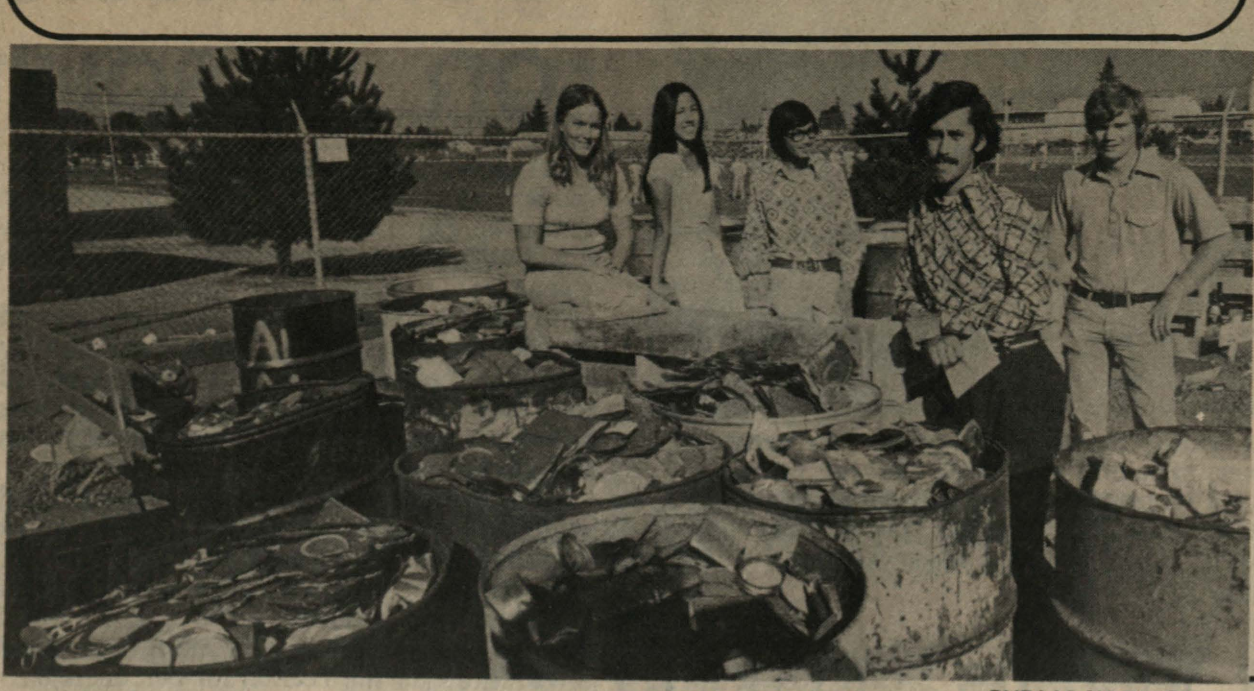
RACIAL SLURS AREN'T FUNNY

The recent complaint filed by a former vice principal in the Campbell elementary school district points out how "unfunny" some jokes can be.

By using the man's picture, along with racial slurs on a mock report form, the district left itself open to criticism as well as official action; such as that initiated by the Fair Employment Practices Commission.

If that form was intended to be funny, and we believe that was the intent, it certainly failed.

Press arena



SET UP TO handle recyclables this weekend are Campbell high school students, and their advisor, who staff the Recycle Center located next to the football field on Campbell avenue. In recent months that site has become unsightly as people drop off trash and refuse outside the fencing. Last week students began checking through some of the refuse dumped there and are contacting at least two local families this week. The Center is open every other Saturday and "open" dates for the next month are Nov. 6, Nov. 20, Dec. 4 and Dec. 18. OPEN LETTER TO THE CAMPBELL CITY COUNCIL

On Nov. 2, 1976 I will be moving into a new home outside the Campbell city limits. It is therefore necessary to submit my resignation as a member of the Civic Improvement Commission effective Nov. 2.

It has been my pleasure to observe the Campbell City Council in several capacities. As a private citizen observing the City Council, as Chairman of the Second Year Housing and Community Development Task Force, as Chairman of the 1976 Citizens Goals Committee and as a member of the Civic Improvement Commission I had had the opportunity to observe the City Council very closely rarely missing a meeting.

As I leave the city it is my hope that the personality conflicts that have entered city politics will subside so that once again Campbell can move ahead in a spirit of cooperation.

I fear that at the moment healthy disagreement has been replaced by personal desires and conflicts that make open discussion impossible. Differing viewpoints must be discussed rather than ridiculed.

When the City Council is once again able to amicably discuss their differences, Campbell can and will progress smoothly into the future.

QUIET HALLOWEEN

Complaints to the Campbell Police Department were few last Sunday night as the city observed a quiet Halloween.

According to local officials only two cases of questionable candy were received here this year. The candies have been sent off to a lab for analysis.

TACKY EVIDENCE

A 21-year-old Santa Clara man was cited for malicious mischief here last week after he put some finishing touches on the new cement on East Campbell avenue at the new loop street.

Police spotted the man and his dog loitering near the roped off area and when the officer investigated he found large letters spelling out "Rex & Billy" carved in the cement.

Upon questioning the man said he was just standing there but the officer noticed a pen sticking out of his pocket . . . with wet cement on it.

GEMS BELIEVED STOLEN

Campbell Rock Shop on Campbell ave. reported precious stones and rings missing valued at $1,947 last week.

Included in the missing items were two gold rings, opals and agate.

The detective division is investigating.

ARMED ROBBERY

A clerk in the 7-11 Store at 2223 S. Bascom ave. was struck in the chest with a lug wrench last weekend, after telling two robbers he had no more cash.

According to police reports the two men, carrying a knife and the wrench, fled from the store with $70 in cash and a half gallon jar filled with beef sticks.

THEY STOLE 'A LEMON'

The theft of a $500 industrial type vacuum cleaner was reported to Campbell police last week from the Regina Apartments on Hollis avenue.

Reported missing from the rear parking lot, the vacuum was broken, reports say, and was left there to be repaired.

CARDIFF BURGLARIZED

The manager of the Cardiff Apartments, 225 Union ave., reported $1,925 in painting equipment stolen Monday from a storage shed.

Gone, reports say, was an airless paint sprayer valued at $1,600, 250 feet of yellow paint hose, a spray gun and 100 feet of extension cord.

SERIOUS INJURIES.

Two San Jose men were seriously injured last week after their cars collided at the corner of Hamilton and Bascom avenue.

Taken to the hospital for emergency treatment were Howard Smith, driver of one car, and Ray Ruiz, the second motorist.

After investigation by police a complaint is being sought against Smith for failure to stop for a red light.

New woes for the old pumpkin patch

THE PUMPKINS and pony are long gone from Dennis Seymour's leased Hamilton avenue property today. But his troubles aren't over.

Last week Councilman Rusty Hammer directed Seymour to appear before the council this Monday to discuss the matter of a hot air balloon.

Hammer reported Seymour, who plans to operate a Christmas tree lot in the same location, commissioned a giant balloon to fly over that property, near Winchester boulevard two weekends ago to attract customers.

The only problem is that the businessman didn't obtain a permit beforehand.

And a new complaint has come up since that meeting.

According to City Manager Bob Stephens, nearby property owner has lodged a complaint against Seymour over the matter of a runaway pony that trotted into her yard.

Top award in parade goes to local group

CAMPBELL'S Bonnie Rosettes baton troupe strutted off with the Bicentennial Trophy for majorettes at the recent Cupertino Pioneer Day parade. The Rosebuds, their beginners group, also won first place in the peewee division.

The local group will appear in the San Jose Veterans Day Parade Nov. 11, where they won first place last year, and at the Los Gatos Children's Christmas Parade Dec. 4. They are also planning a special Christmas show at the Campbell library Dec. 11.

Local winners in the Pioneer parade included: Leaders Elizabeth Trigos and Julie Ells and other Rosebuds Cindy Ziegler, Lisa Palma, Lori Segal, Annette Crumbliss, Leslie Montoya, Lena Anglin, Elaine Silva and Cindy Mitchell. This group ranges from 5 to 10 years.

Junior corps included Leaders Celeste Cook and Mary Duffy and members Donna Drake, Tina Luck, Maria Trigos, Tina Gilbertson, Cheryl and Theresa Henrahan. Juniors are from 7 to 11 years.

Soloing for the group that day were Buffy Terry and Marie Richardson.

Steven Cook and Monica Hays carried the banner.

The junior corps recently took a third place award at the Saratoga parade and Celeste Cook took second as junior soloist.

Pat's game for new ideas

Local inventor did it all by herself

BOOKKEEPER TURNED game inventor Pat Johnsen bears out the old adage, "If you want something done right, do it yourself."

She did just that with her new game, "San Jose, U.S.A." which is now selling at the airport gift shop, in Eastridge, Old Town in Los Gatos and at stores in San Jose. She invented, manufactured and marketed it herself.

Five years ago the Campbell woman came up with her first game idea, called "Jiggle-Words" and, after making up a prototype, sent it off to the Parker Brothers for review.

"They seriously considered it," she related, "because they kept it for three months before returning it."

That turn-down didn't stop her though. The next game was "Steal the Wheel," a board game she's now reworking into a history game for use in the classroom.

HER LATEST invention, and the one now in the marketplace, is a pocket-size game that's quick to play. The idea is to draw letters and puncuation marks from a pile of chips but complicating that procedure is the fact that your partner can "steal" one of your letters whenever he draws a blank chip.

Before plunging ahead into production this time, Pat had her "original testers" try it out. Husband Norm and daughter Vicki gave their stamp of approval.

"They liked it because it was quick," Pat says.

From there two friends tested it for her and then Millard Smith's sixth grade class at Cambrian school gave it a whirl.

WITH A POSITIVE response from the students from survey sheets they made out, Pat went into formal market testing. Over three months she had 100 children and adults try it out and, in the process, modified it slightly.

"Making the rules clear enough is the biggest problem," the local woman explained. And the final prototype was made with condensed and simplified rules.

From there it was a trip to a commercial artist for the design, the printer for making up the rule sheets and for the custom-made box. Assembly of the game, which retails for $2, was done in the Johnsen's Cambrian drive home.

So why did a Campbell woman name the game "San Jose U.S.A."?

"I knew the city's bicentennial was coming up in 1977," Pat explained with a gleam in her eyes, "and it's the fourth biggest city in California."

CAMPBELL'S Pat Johnsen has a host of interests and hobbies including golf, creative writing, swimming, poker, bridge and playing games. Some of her inventions are displayed on the table of her Cambrian drive home.

Three plans get the nod from state

Three proposals directly affecting Santa Clara county residents have survived initial state screening for funding under Title 1 of the Public Works Employment Act of 1976, it was announced last week.

Under this section, state agencies, colleges and universities submitted 1,300 projects for federal funding under the $2 billion bill, which became law over a Presidential veto.

Of the 280 projects sent on to the national level for consideration, three are from the county area.

They are:

- Reconstruction of the roofs at Agnews State Hospital in Santa Clara, estimated cost of $415,000. This project would create employment for 99 individuals, petitioners say.
- Landscaping state highway Route 85 at an estimated cost of $130,000, with 65 workers employed.
- Five campus-wide projects at San Jose State University totaling $143,600 with employment for 33 workers. The request includes rebuilding boiler number 4, site work on the campus entrance, residence hall quad and work on the home economics building and Morehead Hall.

These state-okayed projects will be competing at the federal level with projects proposed by local jurisdictions, including Campbell's bid for $2.5 million in funding for local projects.

An Affair to Remember with BEA RENÉ

© Bea Rene 1975

"Share the Wealth" a publication which searches out money-saving spots to dine, raved about SIRLOIN AND BREW UNLIMITED. Their Oct. issue said, "We couldn't believe our ears! A salad & steak dinner w/all the wine, beer or sangria you can drink incl. in the price of a dinner? Yes! And a good dinner at that!" They also said, "The salad bar (all you can eat) is self-service, very fresh & incl. baby carrots, cherry tomatoes, croutons, bacon bits, onions & seasonal items." All this for $4.59 & up. No wonder they're enthusiastic!

KATZ 'N' JAMM, a 7 pc. musical group now appearing at the SHIRT TAIL RESTAURANT IN PALO ALTO . . . the heart of KATZ 'N' JAMM is the Singing Campbells; mother, Tish & daughters Cyndi & Althea — now joined by singer Mike Overstreet & arranger-pianist Thaddeus Pinkston. When the SHIRT TAIL put in their long awaited dance floor, they wanted a versatile group, at home with current musical trends as well as easy listening & dancing tunes. This group was their choice — having performed on TV, records, concerts & radio. Dine & dance & there's never a cover charge. Come & listen every Tues.-Thurs. 8-midnite & from 9 p.m.-1 a.m. Fri. & Sat. See you there!

Recently some friends told me of a Sat. night when they started at one end of the peninsula & imbibed a little too long & found that dinner hours were fast slipping away — they then remembered their favorite ECHO restaurant that serves on Fri. & Sat. until 11 p.m., raced there & made it just in time to enjoy one of John Bikakis's great deluxe dinners serving soup plus salad, cheese cup, garlic toast, hot rolls, butter, coffee, ice cream, sherbet or fried cream brandy sauce w/entree. This restaurant is always a winner!

I'm always being asked to locate a good Sat. lunch spot . . . In addition to the Sat. requirement, most ladies prefer a lovely garden atmosphere so here's one fine suggestion — the GAZEBO in Old Town, Los Gatos. Master Chef Earl Geiss is presenting new seafood items w/a "catch of the day" & a Blue Plate Spec. (moderately priced). This is also a good Sun. brunch favorite serving 10 to 3 p.m. w/excellent cuisine!!

PEZZELLA'S VILLA NAPOLI is now featuring luncheon spec. that I think will interest everyone . . . Tues. & Wed., Chicken Livers sauteed in mushrooms only $3.25; and Italian Beef Sandwich (Roast Beef sauce w/green peppers & French fries, $2.25); Thurs. & Fri. Crab Louie $3.95 or Calf's Liver sauteed in onions $3.95. Remember lunch is served until 3 p.m. & dinners until 10:30 Tues. — Thurs. & til 11 p.m. Fri. & Sat.

When you walk into BOGART'S off Homestead Rd. you'll think you can hear "Play It Again Sam" since the decor is filled w/Bogey pictures & artifacts. Chef Dave Frey's new dinner menu incl. a "daily fish catch" & Sauteed Baby Lobster & Filet, Broiled Salmon, Mushroom Steak & a variety of Pasta dishes. BOGART'S furnish complete catering & they're one of the best in this endeavor.

A unique & entertaining way of dining is sitting around a table dipping chunks of filet, chicken or seafood into piping hot oil, cooking it yourself, then eating it w/several sauces. I personally enjoy combining a meat fondue & cheese fondue . . . this combination is marvelous. Many fad restaurants come & go, but the FONDU POT in Campbell will go on & on — I guarantee. They also serve a $2-$3 lunch for you working folks.

Many diners insist upon entertainment at a restaurant/-lounge — & there's plenty of good entertainment around, granted. However, Nick Kaplanis & Steve Smith provide entertainment in the fine cuisine served at the VINTAGE '76, where dining is a memorable occasion. Remember Mon. night football spec. dinners 5-9 p.m. at a spec. price. Open for lunch, dinner & NOTE THIS, a marvelous Sun. Brunch!

I love to receive ltrs. from readers who are enthused about one of my restaurants . . . I recently heard from a Mrs. Mathews of Santa Clara who raved about the fine French cuisine prepared by Chef Thomas J. McCombie at PEAR WILLIAMS. She & a visiting couple are great followers of Simone Beck & Julia Child & knew that a protege of theirs would be superb. She told me they weren't disappointed but delighted with their evening. Try it!

John McMannis & Terry Maloney, owner's of the popular MALONEY'S in the valley, have certainly struck on the winning formula for pleasing people. MALONEY'S is strictly "standing room only" on the weekends, their popular cuisine brings people from all over the peninsula though it's off the usual restaurant circuit. I do suggest you try it in the middle of the week rather than take your chances on the weekend. Perfect country atmosphere.

CITY REPRESENTATIVES were processed through the building in three stages on opening day. First, they stood in line outside and were given a number. Once inside they sat down to fill out a form and wait some more. Finally, five at a time were ushered upstairs to hand deliver their applications.

And Campbell got some special recognition that day.

"Most cities came with applications for 1 or two projects," Elliott related. When it was Campbell's turn the man asked how many projects the city wanted funding for. "Seven," Elliott replied. The office was buzzing over the number of applications, Elliott says, when he was questioned further. "Where's Campbell?," was the first query, and "what do the projects total?" was the second.

"When I replied that Campbell was a community of about 30,000 people and that the projects totaled $2.5 million the place just came unglued," Elliott declared.

"So, now they know about Campbell."

The city now has to wait up to 60 days to find out what, if any projects, the government will be picking up the tab for. And Elliott isn't overly optimistic.

"You have to remember that they're considering the unemployment rates of the areas," he explained.

Take that risk, Virgo

Nov. 6 through Nov. 12, 1976

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Situation exists where hostility is so well disguised that it may pass for tranquility. Full Moon acts as catalyst to bring about change. Quiet desperation turns to noise, but in the final shuffle, Ari, you benefit.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Flamboyant on the outside, but inside, Taurus, you're practical, traditional, and yes, even conservative. You often appear lethargic but you can be aroused to sudden passion by the right (or wrong!) word/gesture. Full Moon may be responsible for erratic temperatures changes.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Distant music stirs your senses and desire to take a chance is strong. The rhythm of the universe surrounds you. Relax, Gem, and let life, like a giant wave, carry you to exciting shore.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Now see here, Moonbaby, you had your chance for a little fling last week, but your fling should be flung by now, and so it's time to get back to biz. Sorry, my friend, but you can't expect to lick the frosting bowl every week.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Don't waste too much time listening to others. This week, Leo, you should listen to your inner thoughts. Sort them out. Time for Leo to make some serious, personal decisions. A lonely task, 'tis true, but very important, so do it. Action delayed is action denied.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Be exactly who you want to be in week ahead, Virgo my love. Take a risk if it will mean living life more fully. Don't permit these dazzling autumn days to be squandered on foolish nothings. Live. Laugh. Love. Especially love.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Personal goal highlighted. Know that there is no facile solution to difficulties ahead. Additional planning, Libra, plus much more hard work involved before you achieve your little heart's desire. Week cuddles to a close.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Demands and challenges in week ahead. Progress in direct proportion to your efforts. Bone up on important data. New ideas/solutions arrive if you keep your position fluid rather than frozen. On last day, Scorp, get rid of excess energy by raking leaves.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Because your opinion is valued, questions will be asked. Don't waffle, Saj. Answer directly. You get chance to take three giant steps toward personal goal. Simon says. Olga says. And so do the stars.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Friendship looms on horizon, Cap, which just may turn into longterm relationship. However, I must emphasize the word friendship, for you should not allow it to develop into anything more. Right now, sweet Cap, you need a buddy . . . not a lover.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Guard health in days ahead, my friend. Watch your diet, get enough rest, avoid alcohol, tobacco and wild, wild livin'. Other than that, Aquari my love, you can relax and enjoy these brisk November days. And no backtalk!

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): You are wise, Pisces, but certainly not The Wizard you pretend to be. This week you encounter one who will offer good, sound, old-fashioned advice concerning nagging personal problem. Kindly remove your headphones long enough to listen. Week ends with a giggle.

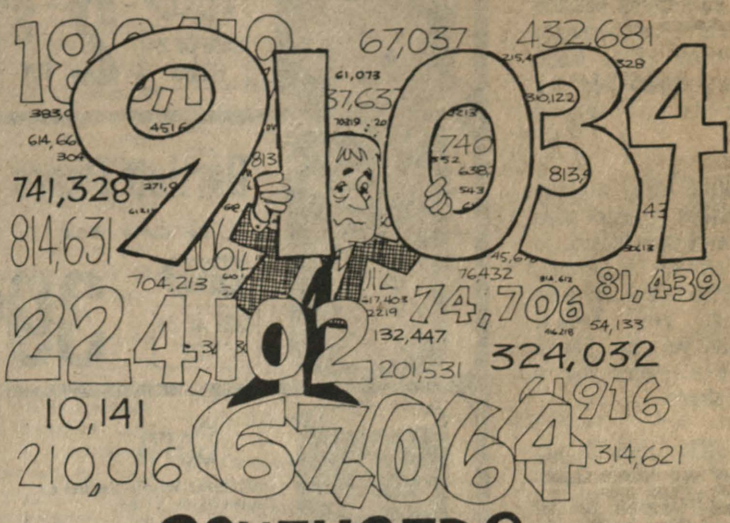
memo to advertisers



CONFUSED?

Sometimes it is difficult to find your way through all the claims and counter-claims of advertising media.

But there is one no-nonsense report that tells it exactly like it is—not like we (or anyone else) dreams it to be.

That's the report of the Audit Bureau of Circulations, an advertiser controlled circulation fact-finding and fact-reporting organization.

Next time you question a circulation claim, just ask to see proof—the ABC report.

And that's a fact, for sure.

AIR CALIFORNIA
We're easy to take.

How to save gas and money, and get a bonus for doing it.

If you get a pilotless gas range, you can get this spice rack, free.

We're not encouraging you to buy a new gas range. But if you do, we want you to know that many manufacturers are offering pilotless ignition models.

The advantage is easy to see. Forty percent of the gas used by a conventional gas range is just to keep the pilot operating 24 hours a day. But a pilotless range can save that 40%, so you'll save precious gas energy, and money, too.

If you buy a pilotless ignition gas range from a "We Care" dealer between now and November 30, your dealer will hand you a spice rack and set of 12 spices with a retail value of $12.95.

This program is sponsored by the Electric & Gas Industries Association, as part of a campaign to conserve energy, and PG&E is proud to be part of it.

So, if you need a new gas range, don't buy just any model. Get one with a pilotless ignition – it really saves energy.

Del Mar nabs first triumph

Dons maintain hex over Westmont, 9-8

By DICK SPARRER
Sports Editor

OVER THE PAST seven seasons, since Don Stagnaro took over the head coach role on the Westmont high school football field, the Warriors have had great success posting winning records in the West Valley Athletic League.

And over those same seven seasons, since Jim Clifton has been at the helm of the Del Mar high grid squad, the Dons have had little success recording winning WVAL campaigns.

But even though the Warriors have been finishing in the first division of the WVAL and the Dons in the second, Del Mar has been dominating Westmont. And that domination didn't change in 1976!

Del Mar notched a very close 9-8 victory over Westmont last Friday afternoon to post its fifth win over the Warriors in the past seven years. Westmont has won just one of the last seven bouts, last season's game ending in a 28-28 tie.

"It was a good win for us," said Clifton. "We've always given Westmont trouble over the last few years."

"We've always had trouble against Del Mar," countered Stagnaro. "We have a winning record against every team in the league but Los Gatos and Del Mar. I don't know why that is."

The loss cost Westmont first place in the WVAL. At the same time the Warriors were losing, Branham was knocking Blackford off the top of the loop 21-7.

BRANHAM TOOK over the league lead with a 4-1 record and Blackford is second at 4-1-1. Westmont is tied for third at 3-2 with Prospect and Camden is fifth at 2-2.

But no one is really out of the tight WVAL race, not even the Dons. Del Mar now holds a 1-2-1 loop record but faces a big test this week that could put them right in the title picture.

The Dons entertain Branham in a 2:45 p.m. game Friday. A win for Del Mar could really shake up the WVAL standings.

"It's going to be tight, but we still think that it's possible for us to do something," said Clifton. "We play a big game this week."

"They're very quick and execute very well," said Clifton of the Bruins. "They can score quickly from anywhere on the field. They're a good football team."

Westmont will get a week off from WVAL competition after the loss to Del Mar. The Warriors will visit Fremont Thursday for a 7 p.m. non-league test.

"Fremont is a good, solid team," said Stagnaro. "They're well disciplined and physical—they come right at you."

Del Mar made a safety, touchdown and extra point stand up for its victory over Westmont last Friday.

The Dons and Warriors battled to a scoreless tie in the first quarter before Del Mar hit the boards in the second.

The Westmont center fired a punt snap high over the head of the Warrior kicker. The punter chased the ball to the endzone but was corralled by Bert Tardieu of Del Mar for a safety.

WESTMONT CAME back to take an 8-2 lead before the halftime break.

Randy Scacutto hit Rocky Pena on a 21 yard scoring toss and Scacutto ran for the two-pointer to make it 8-2.

A pair of fine runs by Warrior back Mark Kahn set up the Westmont touchdown.

"We drove the ball down the field pretty well that time," said Stagnaro.

Late in the third period, though, Del Mar took the lead for good. Bob Onetto broke a dive play 43 yards for paydirt and Yogi Taylor kicked the extra point that gave DM the win.

"It was a second and one on the 43 and we called a play to get the first down," said Clifton. "Onetto just kept bulling people over. It was a heck of an effort on his part."

Westmont came back with a 40 yard touchdown toss from Scacutto to Pena in the fourth, but it was called back because an illegal procedure call and the Warriors had to settle for the loss.

Onetto played a "super game" for Del Mar. The running back carried 16 times for 128 yards and caught one pass for 18 yards. George Rodriguez carried seven times for 31 yards and quarterback Jeff Lane gained 24 yards on eight tries.

Through the air Lane was two for four for 24 yards, hitting Onetto for the one pass and Rodriguez for the other.

"Lane did a good job for us in his first start," said Clifton. "He showed improvement. Even as the game went on, he seemed to get better."

Clifton also had words of praise for his offensive line in the win. "They showed great improvement," he said. "We gained quite a few yards on the ground — they all did a pretty fair job."

The Don coach was also pleased that his club converted 11 of 16 third downs for firsts. "That's a big improvement for us."

DEL MAR DROPPED the Westmont quarterback seven times in the game, Bart Tardieu and Jim Slaugherty leading the way with two each.

Linebackers Larry Oreglia and Ernie Watkins led the club in tackles with 12 and 10, respectively, and Blake Fearnside and Clifton Warren sparked the Dons in the secondary.

"We were getting good pressure on the quarterback and that definitely helped," said Clifton.

Onetto led the Don offense, but it was Westmont's Kahn who led all ball carriers in the game.

The Warrior back carried 20 times for 130 yards in the contest.

"He's had the capabilities all year," said Stagnaro. "He did an excellent job running the ball."

Scacutto was seven for 15 for 80 yards through the air, hitting Pena three times for 47 yards.

Center Shane Truan and tackle Michael O'Day led the Warrior performance in the offensive line.

Linebacker Alan Nobriga, end Matt Heath and tackle Jim Pappa spearheaded the Warrior defense.

"We didn't play bad defensively," said Stagnaro. "They never did threaten against us."

Wingard lifts Jags to tough win over Vikes

SAN JOSE CITY College needed a victory over West Valley College last Saturday night to remain in the heated fight for the Golden Gate Conference title. The Jags got that victory, but not quite as easily as San Jose coaches might have hoped.

San Jose and West Valley were locked in a very tight battle for more than three periods on the Jag field before the Purple Gang pulled away in the final stanza to claim a big 35-18 triumph.

But the final score is no indication of how close the game really was Saturday.

The two clubs fought to a scoreless tie in the first period before San Jose took a 7-0 lead in the second.

But before the halftime break West Valley put a touchdown and a field goal on the scoreboard to hold a 10-7 lead.

That lead stood up through the third period before San Jose put together 28 points in the fourth, all scored by Speedster Casey Wingard, to walk off with the victory.

The win left San Jose at 4-1 in GGC play and tied for first place in the league with San Mateo and San Francisco. West Valley fell to 1-4 in the GGC.

RODNEY PETERSON got San Jose off to a good start when the tackle fell on a fumble in the endzone in the second quarter to give the Jags the lead. Jesse Saenz (Pioneer) kicked the extra point. Saenz drilled five extra points in the game for San Jose.

But West Valley came fighting back. Rich Eagle parted the uprights with a 37 yard field goal and Steve Hosmer (Los Gatos) hit Don Stillwell (Westmont) on a 40 yard scoring strike for six points. When Eagle popped the extra point the Vikings held a 10-7 lead.

That stood up until the fourth period when Wingard went wild.

The speedy back took off on touchdown runs of 80, 61 and four yards before West the Vikings knew what hit them.

The Vikes came back with a six yard scoring run by Dwight Perkins (Saratoga) and a two-point conversion pass from Jeff Beeson (Leigh) to Dave Painter (Branham), but Wingard wasn't done.

The Jag came back to score one more time on a three yard run and Saenz' fifth kick gave San Jose the 35-18 win.

The Jaguars will hit the road this week to visit Chabot Friday at 7:30 p.m. in Hayward, needing a win to hold first place.

A night later West Valley will play host to first place San Francisco, Saturday at 7:30 p.m. at Buck Shaw Stadium.

BUC WORKHORSE — Dave Burns, the workhorse of the Campbell Buccaneer backfield, lunges for an extra yard in early season action against Camden. Burns scored all 14 of Campbell's points last week in a 14-12 win over the Prospect Panthers.

Bucs record 1st victory of '76 WVAL grid season

FOR A WHILE LAST Friday, Campbell head football coach Al Matthews thought he was watching an instant replay.

"It was much like the Westmont and Camden games," Matthews said, referring to games the Buccaneers lost in the closing minutes. "It looked like it was going to happen again."

But instead of falling prey to late game heroics by the opposition, Campbell held on to nip the Prospect Panthers 14-12 and notch its first win of the West Valley Athletic League season.

Campbell, which lifted its league record to 1-3, jumped out to a 14-0 lead on touchdown runs by Dave Burns and then withstood a frantic fourth quarter rally by the Panthers, who slipped to 3-2.

"The defense did a heckuva job," praised Matthews. "The kids were really hitting."

Leading the defensive charge was team captain Mark Ryan along with Kevin Smith, Steve Aimonetti, Steve Sexton, Dave Wagner, Glen Gray, Mike Benjamin, Galen Strannigan, Mike Neal and Pat Ryan.

Gray was the top tackler for Campbell, registering seven assisted the three unassisted tackles. Smith, meanwhile, recorded a pair of quarterback sacks while Sexton and Benjamin had one apiece.

While the defense shut-out the Panthers for three quarters, the Buccaneers built a 14-0 lead on the strength of a solid ground attack.

Dave Burns accounted for all of Campbell's scoring with a four yard touchdown run in the first quarter and a five yard TD romp in the third period. He also scored what proved to be the winning points on a two point conversion run following his second touchdown.

BURNS, WHO RANKS second in the WVAL in points scored, was a workhorse in the Bucaneer Buccaneer backfield, toting the ball 28 times for 98 yards in addition to catching three passes for 30 yards.

Carlos Velasco chipped in with 47 yards gained on 15 carries. Leading a strong showing by the offensive line were Brian Bagley, Mike Vadvilavich and Smith.

Prospect nearly pulled the game out of the fire in the last quarter on a touchdown nine yard touchdown pass from Steve Hill to Bruce Felt and a five yard TD run by Dave Angerole. But the Panthers failed to tally on both of their conversion tries, leaving Earl Adams' crew two points short of catching Campbell.

Despite being outscored, Prospect outgained Campbell 189-171 in total yardage for the game.

Campbell heads for Blackford Friday afternoon for a 2:45 p.m. tilt with the vastly improved Braves (3-1-1).

"We'll have to play 100 per cent or we'll be in trouble," admitted Matthews. "They're a good football team and I know Mike (Blackford coach Spitzer) will have his kids sky high for us."

Prospect, meanwhile, is at home Friday for a 2:45 p.m. test with the defending WVAL champion Los Gatos Wildcats (2-3).

GOT IT AWAY — Mike Betenich just gets his punt away in Prospect's early season upset of the Camden Cougars. The Panthers suffered their second straight defeat last week, however, when they were dumped 14-12 by the Campbell Buccaneers.

Grid predictors perfect in STAL

IT'S HARD TO figure. It's just hard to figure!

When it comes to picking the winners in high school football games, how can we possibly be such experts in the Santa Teresa Athletic League and such dumbbells in the West Valley Athletic League all at the same time?

The pattern continued last week. In the STAL the prep predictors at the paper were perfect again. It was the fourth straight perfect 4-0 week for us in the STAL. We're 16-0 in league play in the Santa Teresa circuit and 30-8 in on the season.

But things are much different over in the WVAL. We suffered through a 2-3 week to fall to 20-14 on the year. All three of our misses were decided by less than a touchdown.

Things don't promise to get any easier this week in the WVAL, and they might get quite a bit tougher in the STAL, but here goes.

Westmont will kick-off the weekend with a Thursday non-league game against Fremont. The Warriors will visit the Indians for a 7 p.m. game but will fall by three.

The next afternoon Branham will win by six at Del Mar, Los Gatos will win by three at Prospect and Blackford will win by two over Campbell at home. All three games begin at 2:45 p.m.

The next morning, Camden will host Leigh at 11 a.m. and will walk away with an eight point victory.

In the STAL, Pioneer visits San Jose for a 2:45 p.m. game Friday and the Bulldogs will win by three.

That night at 7:30 p.m. Lincoln will whip Gunderson by eight at San Jose City College. Willow Glen heads to Live Oak and Leland visits Gilroy for 8 p.m. games. The Acorns will hand the Rams their first league loss by 10 and the Chargers will win by 12.

BACK AT poolside last week was Tracy Sweetland. Not very remarkable unless you consider that she recently swam dozens of laps in the Dolphinette swimathon to raise funds for the synchronized swim team. And Tracy was the top fund-raiser with $115. Proceeds will go to purchase new sound equipment for the group. In July, just a week before the group's annual water show, all their equipment including tape deck, microphones and special underwater sound equipment was stolen. Through donations from a local melodrama group and the Santa Clara Aquamaids, the show went through on schedule. But the equipment still had to be replaced. This year the group, co-sponsored by Campbell Community Services, has moved to the Campbell high school pool after outgrowing their old home at a local cabana club.

Jag, Vike cross country title hopes vanish at Crystal Springs

BOTH WEST VALLEY and San Jose City College saw their hopes for a Golden Gate Conference cross country title run away down the back stretch at Crystal Springs last Friday afternoon.

Both West Valley and San Jose fell to the College of San Mateo last week on the Bulldog's home course.

San Mateo dropped San Jose 20-35 and handled West Valley 25-30 behind the first place performance of Mitch Kingery. The two wins clinched a perfect 8-0 record for the Bulldogs and the GGC title.

West Valley picked off second place in the league with a 25-30 win over San Jose. The Vikes finished the GGC season at 7-1 with the Jaguars close behind at 6-2.

Rainbow errors lead to twinbill loss to Reds

TO ERR IS human, but the Del Mar Rainbows carried human weakness a bit too far last Sunday afternoon and it cost them a double header loss to the Lynbrook Reds.

The Rainbows, who saw their Semi-Pro Winter League record slip to 6-6, committed 13 errors on the day to help the Reds post 10-8 and 5-3 wins.

Del Mar made eight errors in the first game to allow Lynbrook to score eight unearned runs.

Spoiled by their own miscues was a 14-hit attack. Tom Bell led the assault at the plate with three hits, three runs-batted-in and three runs scored.

Craig Richesin also collected three hits while Dan McKay, Jim Dorr and Eric Richesin each rapped two.

Manager-player Gary Cunningham extended his season long hitting streak to 11 straight games when he singled to center in his last at bat.

Mike Rusconi rounded out the Del Mar offense with one hit in four trips to the plate.

In the nightcap, Del Mar committed five more errors to allow four unearned runs to score and cost Bell a 5-3 decision.

Bell pitched an excellent game, scattering six hits and striking out four.

Cunningham, meanwhile, ran his hitting streak to 12 straight with a perfect three for three performance that included two doubles.

E. RICHESIN, Bell, Dorr, C. Richesin and Karl Martin chipped in with one hit apiece.

Earlier in the week the Rainbows had nipped Oak Grove 4-3 in a non-league game at PAL Stadium.

Mark Intrieri and Jeff Blobaum combined to toss a two-hitter, Intrieri picking up the win with five innings of work and Blobaum the save.

Tom Medica, who blasted a 340 foot homer to left, and E. Richesin led the Del Mar offense with three stolen bases each, including swipes of home.

Mike Stevenson lashed a triple while Rusconi and Blobaum each ripped singles.

Press has a memory

THE CAMPBELL PRESS has a memory. The paper remembered that Mike Angerole was a fine football player for the Prospect Panthers last fall.

But the PRESS continued crediting Mike Angerole with football plaudits this fall, even though he graduated from Prospect last June.

This year it's Dave Angerole doing great things for the Panther football team, in fact leading the league in scoring. The PRESS stands corrected.

Leigh barriers dump Westmont, Del Mar

DEL MAR and Westmont each ran into powerful Leigh last week in a West Valley Athletic League cross county double dual meet and each were tagged with a loss against the tough Longhorns.

The Dons fell 17-46 to Leigh and Westmont lost a 21-38 varsity decision. Westmont did manage a 23-24 win over the Dons in the meet.

On the other three levels, Del Mar and Westmont each lost to Leigh but the Dons did romp to wins over the Warriors.

Del Mar topped Westmont 15-50 on both the junior varsity and freshman levels and 20-37 in the sophomore class.

Leigh whipped DM 17-44 and Westmont 15-50 in the jv class, DM 15-46 and Westmont 15-48 in the soph division and DM 19-43 and Westmont 15-50 in the frosh race.

Blackford suffers first loop loss

Davis-led Bruins oust Braves West Valley League lead

THANKS LARGELY to Greg Davis, the Blackford Braves are no longer unbeaten and no longer atop the West Valley Athletic League.

Davis, who does his playing for Branham high school, snapped a 7-7 fourth quarter tie with a 21 yard touchdown run and then returned an interception for another score to lift the Bruins to a 21-7 victory over the visiting Braves last Friday.

Because of Davis, the Bruins moved into sole possession of first place in the WVAL with a 3-1 record while the Braves slipped to second at 3-1-1.

Davis led a powerful Branham ground show in the bout with the Braves. The speedy back romped for 83 yards in the game to lead Bruin ball carriers. Branham ground out 255 yards on the ground against Blackford.

The Bruins and Braves fought to a scoreless tie in the first quarter before Branham hit the scoreboard midway through the second on a 30 yard TD run by quarterback Bill Tantillo.

Blackford came back before halftime, though, to tie the game 7-7.

The Braves knotted the score in the second period on a five yard touchdown pass from Scott Conn to Matt Hendrickson followed by Mike Eastman's extra point kick.

The two clubs came out and battled through a scoreless third period before Davis came up with his fourth quarter heroics for the Bruins.

BRANHAM CAUSED Blackford headaches on the ground in the last two periods of the game. The Bruins held the Braves to a negative six yards via the turf.

The loss dropped Blackford out of its one week stay in first place in the West Valley league.

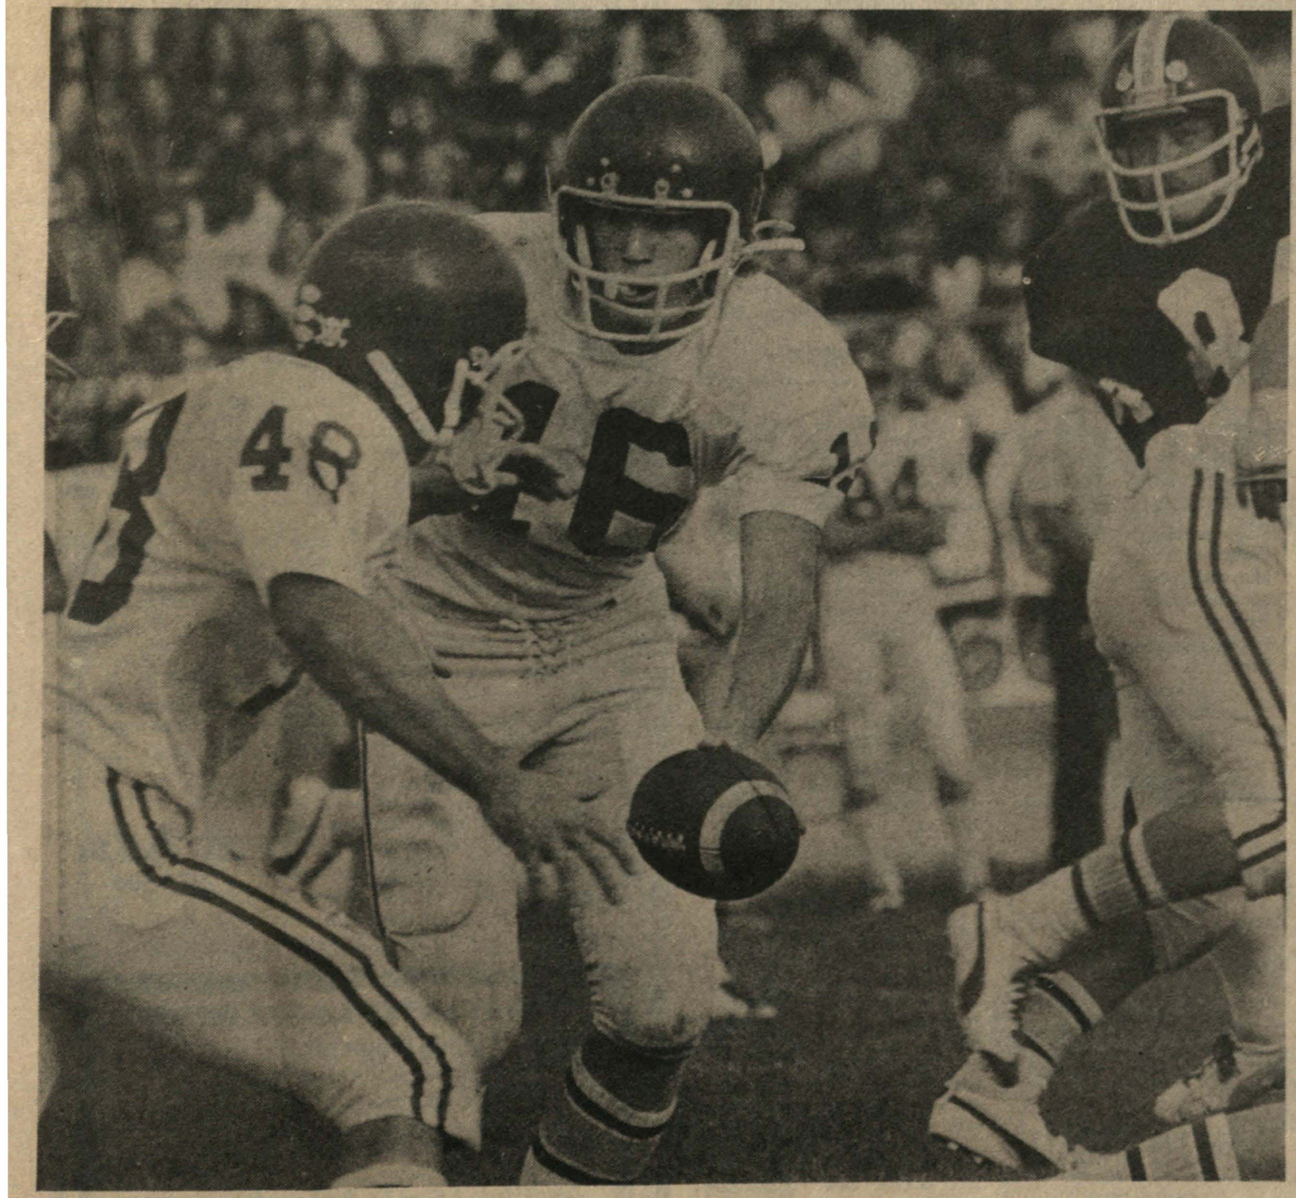
The Braves tied Del Mar 7-7 in their first game of the season before winning three straight.

But up until last week, the Braves were sitting a half game behind both Prospect and Branham. Both of the unbeaten clubs were knocked off while Blackford.

Blackford knocked Prospect from the unbeaten ranks the same day Los Gatos tripped Branham and that sent the Braves to the league top for a week. But the loss to Branham dropped Blackford into sole ownership of second place.

The Braves will try to regain that top spot this week when they take on Campbell Friday in a 2:45 p.m. game on the Blackford turf.

The Bucs are coming off of their first win of the league season, an impressive 14-12 triumph over Prospect.



BRAVE HAND-OFF — Blackford quarterback Scott Conn hands-off to a running back in last Friday's 21-7 loss at the hands of the Branham Bruins. Branham moved into sole possession of first place with the victory while the Braves slipped into second.

WHATEVER HAPPENED to GOOD OLD FASHIONED VALUE

There was a time when you spent a dollar you knew you would get full value in return. That was nice to know. It doesn't always happen that way today, and, regrettably, there are people who aren't concerned about it. (Dealer) is concerned. We believe our customers should get full value for their hard-earned dollars. And we give it in every sale we make.

THE DEBUT of the Campbell Creature was short lived last Saturday as he was taken into custody by Sgt. Tom Harris to prevent bloodshed . . . to the Milpitas Monster.

ALSO PINCHED for fighting in public and violating curfew last week was the Milpitas Monster who was escorted back to the bogs of our neighboring city later that day. Agent Paul Schommer nabbed the Monster.

Creatures meet

Historic battle ends in arrest

IT WAS entertaining. It was scary. And it had a surprise ending.

The historic meeting last week between the Campbell Creature and the Milpitas Monster ended in a draw as both were hustled off by Campbell police.

The Milpitas Monster had behaved beastly last Saturday at the library, terrorizing the crowd and almost kidnapping the attractive young assistant of Dr. Windslow, the M.C.

When the 6 foot 8 inch Campbell Creature came on the scene it was rescue time with the crowd roaring approval.

And then the tense scene as the two monsters squared off for the battle was interrupted by the sounds of police sirens.

TWO PATROL cars sped into the parking lot and Captain Ron Eddlemon handed the M.C. a proclamation from Police Chief Don Burr.

According to that official-looking document the two monsters were under arrest for violation of two new laws. First, fighting of monsters and/or creatures is not allowed in Campbell. And second, a new curfew was imposed on monsters and creatures for 1 p.m.

The two struck out on both counts and were hustled away by officers.

THE Milpitas Monster was escorted back to Milpitas while the Creature later made an escape and was last seen running south on Second st.

According to informed sources, the Creature plans to put in an appearance before the City Council next Monday to ask for a repeal of the 1 p.m. curfew.

Wine-flowers at Montalvo

Flowers and wine are a nice combination and they'll both be in abundance on Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 13 and 14 at the "Autumn Medley," planned for the Montalvo Center for the Arts in Saratoga.

That weekend professional floral designs will be on display and a wine tasting session rounds out the event.

Co-sponsored by the Montalvo Association and the Saratoga Chamber of Commerce, tickets to the event are available by calling 867-3421 or 867-0753.

Whittle your time away at the library

LEARN ABOUT the fine art of whittling this Saturday at the Campbell public library.

A demonstration and workshop for the public is scheduled for 2:30 that afternoon in the downstairs Community Room, 70 N. Central ave.

Members of the California Carver's Guild will also be displaying their craft at the library from Nov. 6 through the 30th.

The Santa Clara chapter of the state carver's group has over 80 active members who meet at Saratoga high school Thursday evenings from 7 to 9. Both novices and advanced carvers are welcome to attend.

ENTERTAINING young and old visitors to the library was Dr. Windslow who later served as master of ceremonies for the big confrontation between the two monsters.

HONORED FOR his creation of the Campbell Creature last week was Monroe school student Robert Bratt, who walked off with a large plaque, tickets for a free dinner for his family and new "trucks" for his skateboard.

Artwork on display at the library

A dozen members of the Cambrian Artist's League will be exhibiting their paintings at the Campbell public library through November.

Their work includes watercolors, oils and encaustic.

One of the oldest art groups in the valley, the League meets every third Wednesday of the month at 7:30 p.m. in the Normandin-Crysler building in San Jose.
